

End User License Agreement for CaseViewNet® Client Software

December 10, 2009

CaseViewNet Client software is an interactive realtime litigation transcript viewer. It can be used as a companion product to Case CATalyst®, a software program which is used by court reporters to provide realtime reporting services to participants, or with other Computer Aided Transcription (CAT) software capable of outputting a serial realtime data stream. Certain features and functions of CaseViewNet Client software, such as RapidRefresh™, are only available when used as a companion product to Case CATalyst software and are not functional with any other CAT software application.

Acknowledgement of Intellectual Property

You acknowledge that we own the copyrights to the CaseViewNet Licensed Software and you further acknowledge that these Licensed Materials contain valuable trade secrets that belong to us. You agree to maintain and protect the confidentiality of these Licensed Materials; not to disclose our trade secrets to anyone else; or use them or allow them to be used by anyone else for any purpose not allowed by this Agreement. You also agree not to engage in, participate in, or permit any disassembly, decompilation or the reverse engineering of any part of the Licensed Materials or the functions or operations thereof.

Scope of License

A license is granted to use CaseViewNet Client software in a realtime environment or to access and interact with existing transcription files. Any other use or use with unlicensed software is prohibited. This software is provided as is, and Stenograph shall have no liability with respect to any loss or damage directly or indirectly arising out of its use.

Stenograph L.L.C. is the owner, and remains the owner, of the copy of the software licensed to you and it shall be returned to Stenograph in the event of a prohibited use.
