TESTIMONIALS:

"My long-time trainer retired and I thought I'd never find anyone to replace her. It took a few years, but then came Anthony. WOW. Anthony has been such a blessing. First, Anthony truly has a love for reporting. His knowledge and passion for the field is invaluable as a trainer. As a reporter, this equips him with the insight of what reporters truly need and want from a trainer. Anthony has an extraordinary skill set to break down the "why" and "what" you are doing, not just "here's the command." Being able to understand the process of what the software is providing makes a huge difference when training. Most of all, Anthony is so accessible. When I ask for training, willing and able to make himself available for a training session. For my CEUs, I only train with Anthony. He is an extremely important tool in the success of my career and I'm forever grateful to have found him." Karen Lynn Jorgenson, RPR, CCR, CSR, Washington, D.C.

"After having heard Anthony speak at several conventions over the years, we decided to ask him to come to York County to give our staff of 19 some additional training on Catalyst in areas specifically requested by our reporters. We only had a limited amount of time, but Anthony was extremely accommodating and worked with us on putting together a great agenda that covered the topics thoroughly and in such an engaging manner that all our reporters felt they had come away with some great new information. We would definitely love to have Anthony back in the future!" Beth L. Ness, RMR, Chief Technology Reporter, York County Court of Common Pleas
